The Pres Says...

Our February luncheon meeting was held at Hee Hing Restaurant and was attended by 47 members and 20 guests. Four of our guests became members and we would like to welcome Jonah & Shari Kaauwai, Evelyn Arakaki, and April Nishii. We had a delicious Chinese six-course meal before Clear Englebert spoke to us on Feng Shui and its relationship in our homes. We learned about problem areas and workable solutions. If you're feeling stuck in your life, start cleaning and de-cluttering your rooms to achieve tranquility. He emphasized that it's better not to get too attached to material objects—save your love for those who can love you back!

Willes Lee, Party Chairman, spoke to us about our new GOP National Chairman, Michael Steele. Willes and Miriam Hellreich attended the election meeting on the mainland and explained the voting process that took place. We had the opportunity to hear Michael Steele two years ago at Lincoln Day Dinner and he was totally enjoyable.

Jonah Kaauwai, a new OLRW member, also spoke to us. Jonah is the first candidate to announce that he will be seeking the position of party chair at our State Convention in May in Waikoloa. He's young, ambitious, energetic with a strong business background and the determination to unite our party and move forward to a positive 2010.

Community Service Project: Next Step Homeless Shelter, 3rd Wednesday of each month. If you would like to help serve at this event, please call Barney Ho at 294-2612 or 557-3710 or e-mail Barney at barney.jg.ho@gmail.com. You can also call me at 261-1146 for further information. Please plan on arriving at 6:00 PM. Dinner is served promptly at 6:30 PM. There were three volunteers representing the Republican Party on Wednesday, January 21, Edna Fujiwara, John Fujiwara, and Barney Ho.

Condolences to the family of Mary Breen Sim

Mary B. Sim of Media, PA age 72 died on Tuesday, December 16, 2008 at Neighborhood Hospice in West Chester, PA.

Mary was a retired guidance teacher and a life member of Oahu League since 2001.

St Patrick's Day

St. Patrick's Day is celebrated on March 17, his religious feast day and the anniversary of his death in the fifth century. The Irish have observed this day as a religious holiday for thousands of years.

On St. Patrick's Day, which falls during the Christian season of Lent, Irish families would traditionally attend church in the morning and celebrate in the afternoon. Lenten prohibitions against the consumption of meat were waived and people would dance, drink, and feast—on the traditional meal of Irish bacon and cabbage.
