Luncheon Speaker Jonah Ka'auwai

Chair of HRP

Jonah-Kuhio Ka'auwai is the Chairman of the Hawaii Republican Party. Jonah can be best described as a man of deep faith and moral conviction. He is best described as a devout husband to his wife, Shari, a nurturing father to his two sons Zion and Ridge, a fiscally prudent businessman, and a proud Hawaii Republican. His friends, family and business associates love and respect him because of his character, passion, values, enthusiasm and especially his genuine love for others.

Born and raised in Waipouli on Kauai, Jonah-Kuhio was named after Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalaiana'ole (his wife was great aunt Princess Elizabeth Kahanu Ka'auwai) with direct lineal descendents of chiefs of Maui and Hawaii. Jonah is a graduate of Kamehameha Schools and received his Bachelors Degree in Marketing and Philosophy from Boston College in Boston, Massachusetts.

He worked for the Department of Public Safety's Hawaii Correctional Industries Division for nearly ten years, most recently as Division Administrator working to bring more accountability and self-sufficiency to operations and management to Correctional Industries and leading the division to its most healthy and vibrant economic condition in its 25+ year history.

He also served as Deputy Chief of Staff for Lt. Governor James "Duke" Aiona, Jr., for two years, coordinating staff, constituent concerts and community events on behalf of the Lt. Governor and serving as a key advisor and liason for the Office of the Lt. Governor.

Jonah was elected as Chairman of the Hawaii Republican Party in May 2009 and continues to serve the people of Hawaii by championing the Hawaii Republican Party values of Liberty, Limited Government, Individual Responsibility, Fiscal Accountability and Equality of Opportunity.
