September Speaker Governor Linda Lingle

Governor Lingle took office on December 2, 2002, committed to bringing about a "New Beginning" for the people of Hawai'i by making state government more open, accountable and responsive. Her tremendous success at accomplishing these goals and revitalizing Hawai'i led to re-election for a second four-year term in November 2006 by the largest margin of victory in any gubernatorial race in state history, which included winning all of Hawai'i's 51 house precincts.

Governor Lingle is the sixth elected Governor of Hawai'i. She is the first mayor, first woman and first person of Jewish ancestry to be Governor. She is also the first Republican to lead the Aloha State in more than 40 years. In November 2005, she was awarded the Diversity Best Practices Award for Leadership in Government – the first such award for a state's chief executive.

She first served the people of Hawai'i in 1980 as a member of the Maui County Council, and went on to complete five two-year terms, three representing the island of Moloka'i. In 1990, she was elected Mayor of Maui County and served two full four-year terms. Under her leadership, job growth was faster in Maui County than anywhere else in the state. Governor Lingle was born on June 4, 1953 and is a native of St. Louis, Missouri. When she was 12, her family moved to Southern California, where she attended public schools and graduated from Birmingham High School. She relocated to Hawai'i in 1975 after graduating cum laude with a journalism degree from California State University, Northridge. In 1976, she founded and began serving as publisher of the Moloka'i Free Press.

The Pres Says...

What a great luncheon meeting we had on August 5! There were 60 members and 30 guests in attendance to hear Lt. Governor Duke Aiona speak on education, economy and job creation, sustainability and why he is the right man to lead our state come November. He was introduced by his lovely wife, Vivian, who is his rock and soulmate. Together they have four children and Vivian is quick to say that raising their children to be good citizens in the community has been first and foremost in their lives. Duke's campaign asked for our vote and received overwhelmingly support from all present.

We heard from candidates that included Ben Pascua, SD15, Lynn Finnegan, Lt. Gov, Daniel Siangco, HD49, Virginia Enos, SD25, Carole Kaapu, HD30, Lisa Shorba, SD9, Garner Shimizu, HD31, Dr. Judy Franklin, SD13, Julia Allen, HD20, And Rep. Barbara Marumoto who spoke on behalf of Ramsey Wharton, Congressional candidate, District 2.

The membership present at the August 5 luncheon voted unanimously to accept the proposed Bylaws as revised. The new Bylaws will be available on our website but if you would like a hard copy, please ask George Kekuna, Bylaws chair.

Daily help is needed at Hawaii Republican Party headquarters for phone banking. This phone banking is necessary to identify voters for our Republican candidates. Calls are automated, so very easy to administer just a brief survey. You just need to press the buttons! Please contact Frances Nuar at HRP. Hours are everyday 9-9pm, so definitely flexible as far as that goes. You can reach Frances by cell at 808-554-3775, or by email at frances@gophawaii.com. Three of our members, Janice Pechauer, Judy Jordan, and Bev Toomey, did this for Congressman Djou's special election and confirmed how easy it was.

Ants, ants, ants everywhere – well, they are said to never cross a chalk line. So, get your chalk out and draw a line on the floor or wherever ants tend to march. See for yourself.

Don't throw out all that leftover wine: Freeze into ice cubes for future use in casseroles and sauces.

To clean artificial flowers, pour some salt into a paper bag and add the flowers. Shake vigorously as the salt will absorb all the dust and dirt and leave your artificial flowers looking like new! Works like a charm!

Oahu needs a Mayor who has Personal Integrity

Panos, a proud Republican does not cower when someone asks him about his affiliation.

Panos does not have one set of priorities when he is in Waipahu and another when he is in Hawaii Kai.

Panos gives concise answers to questions when he has them and investigates the issue further if he is not informed enough to take a stand.

Vote for Integrity. Vote for Panos Prevedouros.

Paid for by Panos for Progress

Panos

for MAYOR.

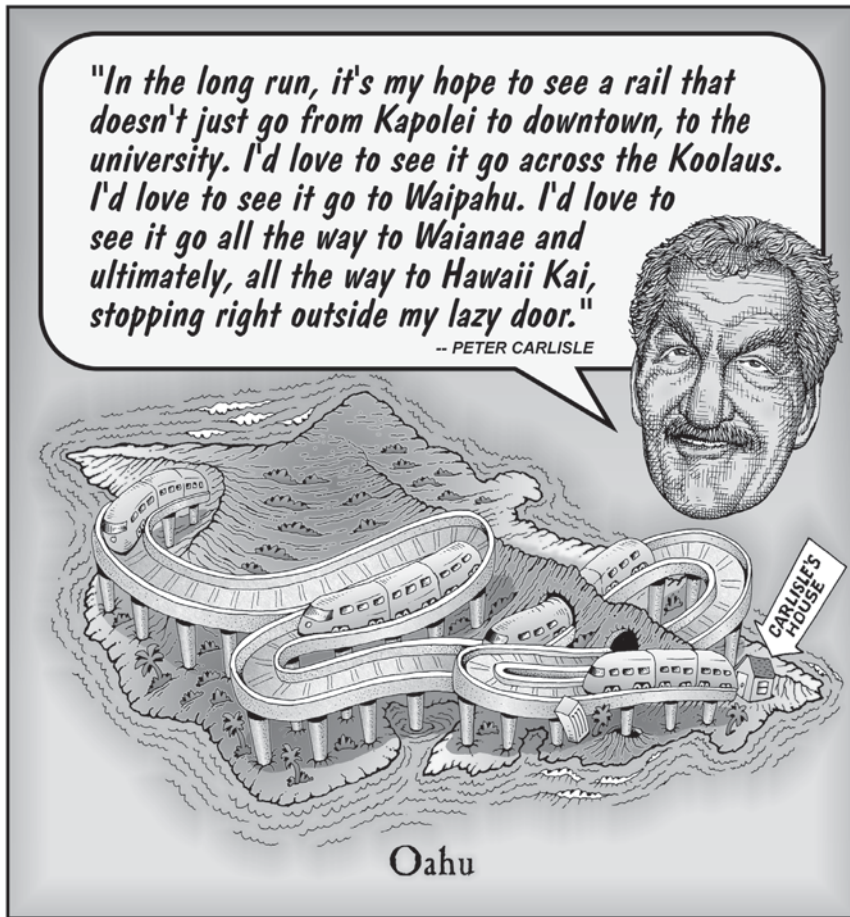

Elect an Engineer, Not a Politician.

The Mayor will be elected September 18 (PRIMARY Election Day) in a special election. You will be offered a choice between an engineer with real solutions and a bunch of politicians.

Vote Panos Prevedouros for Mayor.

Peter Carlisle Denies Republican Past

In an interview on KITV this is what Peter Carlisle said about being a republican:

"As Prosecutor I wasn't an active Republican. I never ran as a Republican.

I was involved in Republican politics for several months at the request of Linda Lingle. I went to Washington DC, decided I didn't particularly care for it"

Gee, what a surprise for those of us that saw him at multiple state conventions as a delegate, and many events over the years as an active participant.

If he denies the truth on this issue what else might he be fibbing about?

August Luncheon

50/50

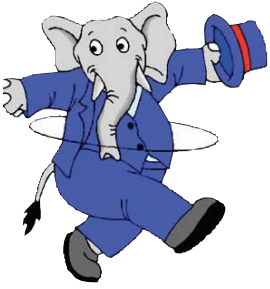

Panos Prevedouros and Sam Slom had a great fundraiser at the home where Obama vacations in Kailua. Everyone had a great time and the candidates both made some money. Thank goodness the owner had the home blessed after Obama left to get rid of the BAD MOJO.

OLRW Member Barbara Wilcox came to check out the digs and to support Sam & Panos

Ione Gumpfer won the 50/50 drawing. $86 went to Ione and $86 went to the PAC.
