Chairman Willes Lee

Hawaii Republican Party Chair, Willes Lee will join us at our meeting this month to wrap up the election.

No Substitutions, Please!

The Waikiki Yacht Club general manager asked that there be no substitutions at our lunches. It was difficult for the kitchen to prepare a number of salads at a moment's notice at the September luncheon. The club has been able to provide us with a nice lunch menu at a very reasonable cost because of the size of our group and because we have only one entree.

Mahalo To Our Hardworking Volunteers!

Ione Gumpfer single-handedly assembled 2000 star leis for the three-day event.

Governor Lingle and Lt. Governor Duke Aiona attended on Friday and addressed the visitors.

OLRW Board Elections

The Nominating Committee for our December Board of Directors election has found people willing to run for each of the positions.

The committee consisted of Jeannine Sills and Helen Kekuna representing our Board and Janice Pechauer, Gladys Hayes, and Nancy Gallagher from the general membership.

The Members that have agreed to run are pictured on page two.

Anyone else that is interested in running for office may contact any member of the nominating committee before our November meeting or may be nominated from the floor at our December meeting.

The Pres Says...

Welcome

New OLRW members include Melissa Lauer and Sandra Mallette. Sandra Williams and Jeannette Templeman rejoined.

October Luncheon

We welcomed guests Sylvia Lauterborn, Marie Diaz, Nola Epp, Betty Owens, and Karen Masaki and sang Happy Birthday to our October members, Helen Kekuna, Harriet Gray, Anne Sutton, Betty Robinson, and Nancy Gallagher.

Anne Sutton's "Thought for the Day" was a take on Pets and Presidents that had us all chuckling.

Our guest speakers were Representative Barbara Marumoto, State House District 19 and Candidate Jack Legal, State House District 40.

Barbara told us that she was born on the West Coast and she, her parents and grandparents along with her infant brother lived in an intern camp, actually a horse stall, for eight weeks during World War II. Fortunately her dad got a job at UC Boulder teaching Japanese and the family was able to relocate. She has four children, 2 step-children, seven grandchildren and is married to Richard Coons. The big issue in her community is better public education.

Jack was born in the Philippines and came to the U.S. at age 23. He was a chaplain in the Army and past President of the Filipino Chamber of Commerce. The greatest concerns in his district are the economy, infrastructure including traffic congestion and development.

Adrienne King gave us her wrap up on the Republican National Convention and spoke briefly on "Country First" and the energy platform. She also brought McCain stickers, pins, and t-shirts.

PAC Contributions

At our PAC meeting on Friday, September 26, we reviewed the list of Republican candidates statewide and selected twelve for awards in this 2008 election. Candidates and incumbents who received contributions include:

Senator Gordon Trimble, Rep. Corinne Ching, Rep. Barbara Marumoto, Rep. Colleen Meyer, Mrs. Jeri Jeffries, Mr. Quentin Kawananakoa, Ms. Anne Stevens, Rep. Kimberly Pine, Ms. Tercia Ku, Mr. Gil Riviere, Mr. Jack Legal, and Ms. Julia Allen.

We awarded a total of $4,000.00 to our recipients and thank every member of our League for their financial support these past two years that made this possible. Our club contribution is limited to a maximum of $2,000 in each election period. The balance of the money came from PAC donations, calabash drawings, and sales at events. MAHALO!
